

14th Annual
EcoFest Celebration at the ELC

This year's theme "Our Own Backyard"

Dedicated to Billy Willer of The River Rats Band

Sunday, March 7, 2010

12:00 - 4pm

Admission is FREE!

- Live music on the main stage by The River Rats band
- Craft and educational booths
- Ask the experts about the live animals visiting from the Treasure Coast Wildlife Center and Treasure Coast Herpetological Society
- Protecting Hatching Baby Sea Turtles Educational Trailer
- Canoe Excursions (weather permitting)
- Story Time in the Garden
- Fly Tying Lessons
- Organic Gardening
- Dip Netting in the Pond
- Food Vendors
- Making a Difference in MY World School Contest winners announced

Directions: Between US#1 and A-1-A off CR 510 at the western end of the Wabasso Bridge along the Indian River Lagoon Scenic Highway.

Park on the Wabasso Causeway.

Enjoy our complimentary shuttles that will run all afternoon!

SPONSORS

AT&T Real Yellow Pages®
DHI Advertising and Design
George E. Warren Corporation
Gould Cooksey Fennell, P.A.
John's Island Real Estate
School District of Indian River County
Press Journal
WINDSOR Real Estate

Florida Power & Light Company

Making a Difference in MY World School Contest Sponsor

EcoFEST Co-CHAIRS

Tamara Garcia & Jan Garrison

SCHOOL CONTEST CHAIRPERSON

Lawrene Montowski

Questions? Email HeatherA@DiscoverELC.org or call (772) 589-5050