ELC Benefits from “Our Natural World” Photographic Art Exhibit

Wabasso Island, FL – Beginning July 1st, the new Gallery of Hope.org, a photographic gallery presented by Island Images Professional Photography Studio, Inc., will present the first of many exhibits to benefit a charitable organization in the community. This inaugural exhibit to be featured during the month of July will benefit the Environmental Learning Center (ELC), a non profit organization providing environmental education along the Treasure Coast.

The exhibit entitled “Our Natural World” will include high quality landscape and nature-themed juried photographic art pieces showcasing the talents of philanthropic photographic artists belonging to Focus on Philanthropy.org. These talented artists include Peter Connelly, Dawn Currie, J. Scott Kelly, Janice Reynolds, Kim Seng, Jade Simone, Nancy True and Bruce Weissman. Focus on Philanthropy.org is a community-oriented organization that uses the photographic talent of their members to inspire and create change.

Island Images’ Gallery of Hope.org will open on July 1st in the Historic Theatre Plaza building at 2036 14th Avenue, Suite 101, in Downtown Vero Beach. All are invited to attend the complimentary opening reception for “Our Natural World” on Friday, July 1, 2011, from 7:00 to 9:00 pm.

For further information regarding the exhibit, visit www.galleryofhope.org or call (772)643-6994. Information regarding Focus on Philanthropy may be found at www.focusonphilanthropy.org

The Environmental Learning Center is located north of Vero Beach off County Road 510 at the Western end of the Wabasso Bridge. Its 64-acre campus includes exhibit areas, native plant gardens, picnic facilities, gift shop, and visitor center. A current list of its many field excursions and educational programs can be found at www.DiscoverELC.org.
