EcoArt

Wabasso Island, FL – On May 12, 2010, from 5:00 to 6:30 PM, at the Environmental Learning Center, Marjorie Shropshire and Robert Hopper will host a discussion on the role of EcoArt in highlighting local and global environmental issues. EcoArt is a contemporary form of environmental art created by artists who are concerned about our environment. Hundreds of artists around the world have joined this rapidly growing field.

Marjorie Shropshire is President at Shark River Creative, Inc, and Senior Creative Director at DHI Advertising & Design in Vero Beach. She has a BFA in Graphic Design from the University of Miami, and is currently enrolled in the MFA Program in Graphic Design at the University of Florida. Robert Hopper is a landscape architect who specializes in ecologically friendly designs.

Admission for the event is $15 per adult ($12/member). Reservations may be made by calling the ELC at (772) 589-5050 or emailing info@DiscoverELC.org.

The Environmental Learning Center is located north of Vero Beach off County road 510 at the end of the Wabasso Bridge. Its 64-acre campus includes exhibit areas, native plant gardens, picnic facilities, gift shop, and visitor center. A list of its summer ecology experiences for children and young adults, along with field excursions, including hikes, boat excursions, nature walks, and bird watching can be found at www.DiscoverELC.org.
