Golfing for the Environment

WABASSO ISLAND, Fla. The 17th annual Charity Golf Tournament in support of the Environmental Learning Center (ELC) will be held on December 4 at the Bent Pine Golf Club. Co-chairs Tuny Hill, Susie Kasten and Laura McDermott have announced that the $300 per player event will include golf fees, lunch, cocktails and an awards reception.

Registration and box luncheon start at 11:30, a putting contest will take place at 12:15 and play begins at 12:30. The format is best ball of the foursome with full handicaps.

Special events include a raffle ticket sale from which one person will be given the chance to sink a 50-foot putt for $10,000, and a hole-in-one contest in which one or more golfers can win $100,000 each. One raffle ticket can be used for a mulligan anywhere except in the hole-in-one contest.

To register, contact Heather Askew, Events/Office Coordinator at the ELC, (772)589-5050.

The Environmental Learning Center is located north of Vero Beach off County Road 510 at the western edge of the Wabasso Bridge. Its 64-acre island campus includes exhibit areas, native plant gardens, picnic facilities, gift shop and visitor center. A list of its many field excursions including hikes, boat excursions, nature walks and bird watching can be found at www.DiscoverELC.org.
